

Ipsat Therapies Ltd is an innovative Finnish biopharmaceutical company developing products for the prevention of hospital infections and antibiotic resistance. The first product completed Phase IIb.

Our team of 30 highly skilled researchers and scientists in Helsinki is looking for seasoned professional to complement our expertise as:

Regulatory Consultant

- An experienced Pharma industry regulatory professional with knowledge of Product Development
- Must have worked in R&D of a pharma or biotech or CRO and have experience of compiling and filing IND/IMP
- Must have communication & technical skills to work within a project team and helping to develop regulatory strategy
-
- Should be hands-on and prepared to build regulatory documentation as well as guiding/coaching scientists & medics
- Experience of handling sensitively & competently EMEA and FDA – through meetings, telephone and written communications

The role is an interim management position.

Please send your application in English, with resume to Johanna Törmänen, firstname.lastname@ipsat-ther.com, or post to the address Viikinkaari 4, 00790 Helsinki, Finland.